

The Church of the Holy Trinity

An Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York

April 30, 2023 at 6:00 AM

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Welcome to Holy Trinity

This leaflet includes an order of service for worship and other important information.

Assistance. If you need assistance in any way, an usher at the entrance can help you. Restrooms are located in the Mission House building basement, accessible through the Cloister Corridor or across the garden and into the westernmost building.

New to Holy Trinity? We would love to be able to greet you properly. Please fill out a visitor card, located in the pews, and place it in the offering plate or give it to one of the clergy or ushers.

Giving. As Christians, we believe that all we have, from our talents, to our energy, to our financial resources, is a gift from God. If you would like to know more about how to give of your talents and energy, please let a member of our clergy know and they will gladly connect you with the various ministries of the parish. You can make a financial gift through the offering plate, online at holytrinity-nyc.org or by texting COHT316 to 73256.

Our Mission. To show and share the love of God.

Our History. Since 1899 The Church of the Holy Trinity has opened its doors to those of the Anglican Faith, of other faiths, and of no faith. Through hospitality, service, and worship, we seek to “do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God.”

Alleluia. Christ is risen!

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

For Christians, Easter is more than just one day, it’s a whole season, lasting from Easter day until the Day of Pentecost, this year on May 28. Even though we, in this part of the world, enjoy spring at the time of Easter, scripture reminds us that the Resurrection is anything but natural. By raising Christ from the dead, God breaks the death-dealing forces of the world and changes the course of history, opening a way for us to live eternally.

Whether you are a person of great faith, complicated faith, or little faith, I hope you will allow the beauty of the sights, sounds, and smells to wash over you and fill you with the love of God. Take this love into the world and share it as fully as possible.

A continued Happy Easter to all!

The Reverend John F. Beddingfield, Rector

THE WORD OF THE LORD

Prelude

Ubi Caritas

Welcome

Opening Song

Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us

All who are able, are invited to stand

Verse 1 Savior / like a shepherd lead us / much we need thy tender care
 In thy pleasant pastures feed us / for our use thy folds prepare
 Blessed Jesus / blessed Jesus / thou hast bought us / thine we are Blessed Jesus / blessed Jesus / thou hast bought us / thine we are

Verse 2 We are thine / thou dost befriend us / be the guardian of our way
 Keep thy flock / from sin defend us / seeks us when we go astray
 Blessed Jesus / blessed Jesus / hear / o hear us when we pray
 Blessed Jesus / blessed Jesus / hear / o hear us when we pray

Verse 3 Thou hast promised to receive us / poor and sinful though we be Thou hast mercy to relieve us / grace to cleanse and pow'r to free
 Blessed Jesus / blessed Jesus / we will early turn to thee
 Blessed Jesus / blessed Jesus / we will early turn to thee

Opening Acclamation

All who are able, are invited to stand

CELEBRANT Alleluia. Christ is risen.

PEOPLE The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Trisagion

CELEBRANT Holy God,

PEOPLE Holy and Mighty. Holy Immortal One. Have mercy upon us.

The Collect of the Day

CELEBRANT The Lord be with you

PEOPLE And also with you

CELEBRANT Let us pray

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

PEOPLE Amen

The First Reading

1 Peter 2:19-25

All, except the lector, may be seated

LECTOR A reading from the First Letter of Peter

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps. "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth."

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

LECTOR The Word of the Lord

PEOPLE Thanks be to God

Gradual

Ubi Caritas

Ubi Caritas / et amor / ubi caritas / Deus ibi est

(x3)

(Where there is charity / and love / where there is charity / God is there)

The Gospel

John 10:1-10

All who are able, are invited to stand

GOSPELER The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John

PEOPLE Glory to you, Lord Christ

Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.”

GOSPELER The Gospel of the Lord

PEOPLE Praise to you, Lord Christ

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Song

Brother Sun (Giving Glory!)

All may be seated

Verse 1

Brother sun / sister moon / your light shines from the heavens

Giving glory / all the glory / to the maker

Verse 2

Gentle wind / welcome home / you've been traveling with your song

Singing glory / all the glory / to the maker

Chorus Hallelujah / hallelujah / singing glory
Hallelujah / hallelujah / singing glory / to the maker
Hallelujah

Verse 3 Sweetest rain / serenade / pouring down from the heavens
Bring all your blessings / every blessing / from the maker

Verse 4 All you people / join in the song / there is work / to be done
For the glory / all the glory / of the maker

The Great Thanksgiving

All who are able, are invited to stand

CELEBRANT The Lord be with you

PEOPLE And also with you

CELEBRANT Lift up your hearts

PEOPLE We lift them to the Lord

CELEBRANT Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

PEOPLE It is right to give God thanks and praise

CELEBRANT ...lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

PEOPLE Holy holy holy / God of power and might
Heaven and earth are full of your glory
Hosanna in the highest
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord
Hosanna in the highest / hosanna in the highest

CELEBRANT ...therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

PEOPLE Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

CELEBRANT ...through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

PEOPLE Amen.

CELEBRANT And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

PEOPLE Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

CELEBRANT Alleluia, Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

PEOPLE Therefore let us keep the feast, alleluia.

Eucharistic Song

New Humanity

Verse 1 A garden once was ours / but we got lost in wars / forgetting we were yours
Creation felt the sting / and all the suffering / is seen in everything

Prechorus So we pray / let your kingdom come
We pray for the day / that justice will be done

Chorus Let a new humanity / begin a new humanity / begin

Verse 2 A broken world / a broken Lord
You took the cup and poured / that life might be restored
And in return we now / are broken and poured out
Oh hear us crying out

Bridge

When all the saints and all the poor
Will never want for anymore
That we won't hide our daily bread but give with gratitude instead
Oh that your church would come alive and be the image of a bride / we're your bride

Post-Communion Prayer

All who are able, are invited to stand

CELEBRANT Let us pray.

PEOPLE Loving God, whether we are in your church or joining online from another place, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, and renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant blesses the People, and the People respond: Amen.

Closing Song

God of This City

All who are able, are invited to stand

Verse 1

You're the God of this city / you're the king of these people
You're the Lord of this nation / you are You're the light in this darkness / you're the hope to the hopeless
You're the peace to the restless / you are

Prechorus There is no-one like our God (x2)

Chorus 1 Greater things have yet to come
Greater things are still to be done / in this city
Greater things have yet to come
Greater things have still to be done / here

Verse 2 You're the Lord of creation / the creator of all things
You're the king above all kings / you are You're the strength in our weakness
You're the love to the broken
You're the joy in the sadness / you are

Prechorus There is no-one like our God (x2)

Chorus 2 Greater things have yet to come
Greater things have still to be done / in this city
Where glory shines from hearts alive
With praise for you and love for you / in this city
Greater things have yet to come
Greater things have still to be done / in this city
Greater things have yet to come
Greater things have still to be done / here

The Dismissal

The People respond: Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia

A Brief but Complicated History of The Church of the Holy Trinity

The original Church of the Holy Trinity founded by the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr. in 1864, stood at 42nd Street and Madison Avenue. He was followed by the Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Watkins, and the Rev. Dr. E. Walpole Warren. In the early 1890s, as Holy Trinity sought to move northward, the possibility developed for Holy Trinity to combine with St. James Church. Serena Rhineland, who wanted to build a church as a memorial to her father and grandfather, bought out her relatives to amass a parcel of land on East 88th Street, and plans began to take shape for a new mission church. In 1897, St. Christopher's Mission House, the first building of the Holy Trinity complex, was dedicated. The old Holy Trinity building in midtown sold for $750,000, which allowed $200,000 to create an endowment for the new Holy Trinity, and the remainder of the money to go to St. James, who could then retire the mortgage on its new church building. When the rector of St. James retired, the former rector of Holy Trinity became rector of St. James, and the Rev. Dr. James B. Chalmers, became the first vicar of Holy Trinity's new incarnation. After Dr. Chalmers, Holy Trinity was led by vicars, the Rev. Samuel Dorrance, 1919-1926; the Rev. Dudley St. Stark, 1926-1932; the Rev. William J. Dietrich, 1932-1940; and the Rev. James A. Paul who began as vicar but was made the first rector with Holy Trinity's independence in 1951.
